I am an experienced sales professional with experience in managing large complex accounts. I have worked in many roles including as an implementation consultant, Solutions Engineer ERP and CRM solutions, and Global Account Director for The Coca-Cola System during my career at SAP. From 2009 to 2011, I managed our sales team for some of SAP's most strategic accounts headquartered in the southeast United States. In 2013 I was the National VP for the Sales COE for CRM, SCM, MFG, PLM, Platform, and Analytics.

Recently, I was COO of SAP Americas Strategic Industries. This organization is our GTM for key industry accounts in Retail, Financial Services, and Regulated Industries.

Currently I am COO for North America for SAP Ariba. The worlds leading Cloud Procurement and Business Network solution.

Prior to SAP, I worked at MSA and then Dun & Bradstreet Software in Marketing and Product Management.
